

Glenn Jerome Saari

April 5, 1962 - May 30, 2024

Glenn Jerome Saari, age 62, of Sugar Island, Michigan, died at his home on May 30, 2024. Glenn was born on April 5, 1962, in Brooklyn New York, to Donald and Jane (Couture) Saari.

Glenn was the baby of our large family and he enjoyed trying to make his siblings and friends laugh and joining in with his hearty laugh. He was a talented photographer who captured awesome candid photos of family members. He was a proficient carpenter but had his career cut short due to work injuries. He spent the final chapter of his life on Sugar Island enjoying the close friendships he maintained there and content to live his life exactly as he wished.

He is survived by his brothers, Niilo Blomquist, Donnie Saari and Raino Saari, and his sisters, Helene Egilman and Kim Blomquist. His brother, Keith Blomquist, predeceased him. His beloved nieces and nephews include Krysta Blomquist, Tom Blomquist, Sam Egilman, Emily Pigott, Alex Egilman, Tim Blomquist, Jeremy Duda, Adrian Saari and Allen Saari. He is also survived by his Aunt Winkey and cousins Karen Clark, Laura Graney and Susan Clark who grew up together and were very close.

May he rest in peace as he is missed by his many family members and friends. Glenn's Final Resting Place is in Maple Ridge Cemetery, Sugar

Island, Michigan.

“ My sincerest condolences to the Saari family and to his friends. I knew Glenn from about the mid-80s to early 90s as a guy with a zest for living, wily, street smart, and usually smiling. He was an "old school" Brooklyn guy-type that they don't make anymore and he'll be surely missed. I am very sorry to hear this bad news-rest in peace Glenn.
