“ Hi hayho.. I miss you bunches. I miss our road trips and our crazy adventures. I miss sitting in the living room with you watch "our shows". I miss when you would yell at me for not wearing a jacket.. I miss how you used to count every kid on the bus until I came out and into the house. I miss how you would always wave to me when blow me a kiss from the window when I would leave. I miss how you would always take my side when me and pops were arguing (even if I wasn't right). I miss how you would tease me about how I didn't know what I wanted for Christmas. I miss every second with you that I took for granted and now would give anything to have once again. You are my best friend I know that you are watching from up above.. I love you so, so, so much... - Your Baby Girl, Shelby.

“ I haven't seen Gloria or Wayne in many years, but I remember them, I was friends with Gloria's daughter, Marlene. Gloria was a very nice and funny lady, will never forget how kind she and Wayne were to me. I feel bad I lived that close to her and never knew that, would love to have seen her again.
