“ My heart is so heavy after hearing that Grant had passed away. Wendy you were the best Mom to him and he was the Apple of your eye. You were always speaking so highly of Grant and I know you and your husband and daughter are in intense pain and grief. I wish I could help you carry some of this pain for you. Grant was always so helpful transporting on a short notice furniture or fabric home to you for one of the clients we worked with. He was such a gentleman and so kind. My thoughts are with you and know that I am here for anything. Love,
Susie Bassett
