Barbara just reminded me of the meal we shared at Charlie's in Barbeau. We had driven down on our motorcycle on a beautiful day where we, by chance met Harry and Deann. We had a fantastic dinner and a very nice evening.

“ To Aunt DeAnn, Tammy & family Sorry about Uncle Harry, I will be praying for all of you. I will always remember uncle harry as the strong fireman that Tammy and I would stop by the fire hall and visit, and he would come sliding either down the staircase banister, or the fire pole!!! And of course, all the times he told Tammy and I "not to go past the city limits" when we would go out on friday and saturday nights... that was just to show how much he cared.. He was a good man and uncle and I will have a special place in my heart for him now also. Love you
