“ Heather,

I can't believe you are gone. I think of you often, I still have the little trinket box with a red heart on it and I use every day. You had a kind heart, an easy spirit and the best laugh. I remember all the times our kids played together when they were little. Working with you and just being friends. One of the things I loved about you was the fact that you didn't hold any punches. Keep smiling and laughing. Love you lady.
