

Helen Mae Wilson

April 29, 1920 - December 4, 2008

Helen Mae Wilson of Edenville, Michigan died Thursday December 4, 2008 at Cedar Cove Assisted Living in Cedarville, Michigan where she had resided since 2004. Helen was born in Albion, Michigan on April 29, 1920, the daughter of Arthur and Aurilla Mason. Surviving are two brothers and one sister; Richard (Dick) Mason of Steinhatchee, Florida, William Mason of Kissimmee, Florida, and Carrie Ostrander of Gladwin, Michigan. She was preceded in death by one brother, Delbert Mason. Helen devoted a decade of service to the Midland Hospital as a floor attendant. She left the hospital when her husband, Omer Wilson, retired. Together they traveled, wintering on the coast of Florida or camping in the State and National Parks in the southwest. They spent their summers camping along the south shore of Lake Superior where Helen would walk miles in search of agates while Omer fished. Omer preceded her in death in 1978. Helen is survived by three sons and three daughters, Omer (Roy) Wilson and wife Judy of Edenville, Michigan; Joyce Vanderbush and late husband Harvey (Butch) of Edenville, Michigan; Thomas Wilson and wife Paulette of Drummond Island, Michigan; June Toner and husband Darell of Sanford, Michigan; Gerald "Bob" Wilson and wife Carol of Cudjoe Key, Florida and Jean Patino and husband David of Mesa, Arizona. Helen leaves fourteen grandchildren, twenty great grandchildren and three great great grandchildren. Helen's hobbies were sewing, knitting, rock hunting, gardening, bird watching and sight-seeing. She loved nature and all its beauty. She entrusted the lord and became a friend and sister to the members of the First Union Church in Cedarville, Michigan. Loved by all who shared in her life, she will be missed and warmly remembered. Our dearest Mother, Grandmother and Sister, it is certain you shall find agates on that other shore (Rev. 21:19, Isa. 54:11, Ezek. 27:16).
