“ Dear Bob, so sorry to learn of Linda's death. I have some good memories from high school, she taught me how to sew something when I did not understand. I know she loved you very much. I was glad you found each other. I was looking at some stuff from high school and wondered how you folks were doing. I wish you well and understand your loss, as my husband died three years ago. If you want my info, see Andrea Tamlyn at first national bank, she will get it for you. Again my thoughts to you at this time.
