

James Carrick

April 10, 2018

James Tyrone Carrick (Jim), 74, passed away Tuesday evening, April 10, 2018, at War Memorial Hospital.

Jim was born in Detroit, Michigan, the son of the late Edward and Virginia (Lazarovich) Carrick. He was a graduate of Cody High School and held both bachelor's and master's degrees from Western Michigan University, an Educational Specialist certificate from Wayne State University, and Associates in Business from Oakland Community College. He married Linda Stoetzer on July 31, 1985, in Marine City, MI. He retired in 2000 from Macomb ISD, the first Peripatologist in the county.

In 2002, the couple moved to Soo Township where they enjoyed freighter watching and their involvement at Faith Lutheran Church. Jim was very active in the Soo Locks Visitors' Center Association and League of Women Voters. A lifelong Tigers fan, he loved discussing them with his kids, grandkids and other fans, and listened to many games while puttering in his shop. He created and built many wood projects, maintained vehicles, house, and the yard.

Jim is survived by his wife Linda; daughter Heather (David) Jamison of Milford, MI; son Charles Carrick of Waterford, MI; step-daughter Rochelle Roy of Warren, MI; grandsons Matt and Greg Jamison; cousin Barbara (James) Demgen of Florida; and fur baby Andy.

A memorial service will be held at Faith Lutheran Church on Saturday, April 21, 2018, at 11:00 a.m. Friends may call at the church from 10:00 a.m. until the time of the service.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be left to Faith Lutheran Church or the Soo Locks Visitors' Center Association.
