November 30, 1962 - July 20, 2018

James K. Little, Jr. died Friday, July 20, 2018, in Morrison, Colorado after a struggle with brain cancer.

James is survived by his loving daughter "JJ" Jamie Jolie Little, his parents, James Little Sr. and Linda (Ware) Little, his sisters, Jennifer Hinde and husband James, Elizabeth Brison and husband Jeff, Lainie DeNoyer and husband James. He also leaves behind nephews and nieces, William Hinde, Robert Hinde, Elizabeth Hinde-Trumpolt (Godchild) and her daughter Eva Hinde, Maximilian McClelland and Samuel McClelland (Godchild).

James "Bro" Little attended Sault Area High School and worked at Sault Builders before joining the US Army. He was a Veteran of Gulf War 1, and he earned several medals and sustained serious injury during his active duty service with his U. S. Army tank battalion. After discharge from the Army, he worked for the Missouri Prison System as a guard, Home Depot and Lowes in various jobs. James was a kind gentle soul that loved family and friends, enjoyed helping others and was a passionate patriot.

He grew up in Alaska and the Barbeau area and loved outdoor activities, including hunting, fishing, and hockey. James loved playing practical jokes and loved to put his smelly socks near unsuspecting targets saying, "Worse than mustard gas". He loved his daughter Jamie more than anyone. He cherished their time together and enjoyed their trips to a wide variety of destinations, including Colorado, Washington D. C, The Black Hills, and Barbeau's St. Mary's River & Neebish Island.

The family requests that, in lieu of flowers, mourners make donations to the charitable fund the family will be establishing to benefit the families of local veterans in need of financial support while the veteran is getting medical treatment.

A Memorial Mass will be held at Holy Family Church, Barbeau, MI on Saturday, July 28, 2018, at 11:00 AM. Family and friends are welcome to pay their respects.

“ To the whole Little clan, I am deeply sorry for your loss. There are so many good memories it is hard to pick one to share. One of the best was James giving me a hard time for bleeding on his deer trail on Neebish when I stepped on a nail. He loved his hunting. My prayers are with you.

“ Linda and family, I am deeply sorry for the loss of your son, father, brother. I know we talked about his diagnosis a year ago and I'm sure it has been a long and painful year. Having lost my 19 year old grandson last year, I understand the chaos that overwhelms you for the next year of your life. May all the happy memories give you comfort and peace. He is with Jesus and we will all be together one day.
