

James "Norman" McLeod

October 21, 1932 - May 8, 2017

James "Norman" McLeod was the youngest of 10 children born in Bruce Mines, Ontario on October 21st, 1932. Norman moved to Sault Ste Marie when he was 9 years old and resided on Shunk Road with his mother and stepfather. Norman married Alice "Meme" on July 6th, 1959.

Norman and Meme had a large family. Norman was a carpenter for the majority of his life and later in life he worked at the casino. He enjoyed working with the public, visiting family and friends.

He loved to watch the Red Wings and Detroit Tigers. Later in life his greatest joy was spending time with his family, grandchildren, and dog: Buzzy.

In his death, as in his life Norm showed the strength, love, and humor for which he was well known. Norman's last struggle began a week ago at the hospice house. Norman was surrounded by wife Meme, children, and grandchildren when he drew his last breath. If a death may be said to be beautiful, then Norman's was a beautiful peaceful death. Norman used all the strength he possessed to get back to his home and his family. He died in peace, surrounded by love, with his family.
