

Jeremiah J. Driscoll

February 12, 1934 - June 28, 2005

Jeremiah Joseph Driscoll, age 71, passed away Tuesday evening, June 28, 2005 at his home in Barbeau, Michigan. He was born in Unionhall, County Cork, Ireland on February 12, 1934 the son of the late James and Helena Driscoll. Jeremiah enjoyed a wonderful life. He had a job he loved, ending his career on the beautiful Columbia Star as her first mate. He had also been Captain of many other ships over the years. He was well-read and was a fountain of knowledge on many topics. He loved his home on the St. Mary's River in Barbeau and spent untold hours working in the yard clearing trees, making flowerbeds, stacking firewood, and babying his apple trees. He loved his wife's cooking, her reading to him, listening to good music and traveling down to the Florida Keys for the past 30 years. Every Spring he looked forward to the arrival of his friend and neighbor, Richard Atkinson of Ypsilanti. They spent a lot of hours together discussing many things and helping each other. Jeremiah was a good man and husband and he'll be missed everyday. His family includes his wife; Ellen (Matzinger) Driscoll, whom he married on April 30, 1986 in Toledo, Ohio, sister; Eileen (Dan) Cahill, Eileen passed away June 22, 2001, (their children are, nephews; James Patrick Cahill and Neil David Cahill both of Chicago, IL), a brother; James (Pam) Driscoll of Gwent, Wales, sister; Anne Driscoll of London, England, and sister; Agnes Driscoll of Chicago, IL. He is also survived by three step-daughters; Laura (Keith) Felker of Toledo, OH, Lisa E. Griffin of Oregon, OH, and Stephanie (Errol) Torres of Sheffield, OH, his Mother-in-law; Marie G. Matzinger of Perrysburg, OH, and seven grandchildren; Chelsea, Andy, Dan, Victoria, Hannah, Rebekah, and Sarah. Memorial services will be held at 3:00 PM on July 9, 2005 at C.S. Mulder Funeral Home with Brother John Hascall officiating. Friends may call at the funeral home from 2:00 until the time of the service. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be left to Hospice of Chippewa County. They are truly worthy.
