“ He kept at true good humour's mark
The social flow of pleasure's tide:
He never made a brow look dark,
Nor caused a tear, but when he died.

“ To his loved ones: words cannot express the grief and heartache everyone is going through. Jeremy loved life and he was up for anything cooking, softball, ice skating, and you knew you would have fun with the little jokster. We are truly blessed to have him as a great friend and part of our lives. They say the good die young and Jesus brought you home to a better place so you won't suffer anymore. This isn't a goodbye, but see you again to say "hola" We love you, miss you and can't to say see you. You are a wonderful person. Our thoughts and prayers go out to all your family and friends and most of all your sons! Love you always:)

“ To Kareen, Bob, Jason, and Justin... I cannot adequately express how much I loved knowing Jeremy. Some of the most dearly special times in my life were when we would spend the summers with my grandparents, Jeremy, and all of you. I often think about the many crabapple wars, baseball games, and hilarious things we would all talk about. Like Jeremy, those memories will live with me forever. Please know that my love and prayers are with you always... David

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I was in treatment with Jeremy. He was a nice person and had a great smile. I have said a prayer for you and will be thinking of your family and especially for his children. This "disease" that we have is such an awful thing and it makes you think in a distorted way. Again, my sympathies.
