“ Jerry was our youngest brother but he wasn't just my brother he was my friend. He could make me laugh and he could make me cry. He had a huge heart willing to share or give anything he had. He had his moments of being terribly bullheaded but he kinda met his match with me. I still can't believe he's gone. I pray he his at peace and he's met up with our Heavenly family. He will forever be missed and forever loved.
