“ John, Laura and family I am thinking and praying for you all this morning as you do something no husband, mother, father or child should have to do. I so enjoyed my time working with and getting to know Jessie. She had such a wonderful heart so full of love for each of you and I know that there will always be a piece of each of you missing. Our assurance is that we know that one day we will be reunited with each other in heaven.

“ Moran, McKechnie, and Gollinger Families, With great sadness we send our love and sympathy to you all. Jess was a wonderful mother, the sweetest person, and what a great young woman she became because of all of you. We are very fortunate to have watched her grow up. We will forever cherish her hugs, and she will forever be in our hearts. We are so sorry for your loss.
