

Robert Sims

December 7, 2016

Robert Sims, 71, of St. Ignace, passed away Wednesday afternoon, December 7, 2016, at Mackinac Straits Health System in St. Ignace, following a short illness. He and his wife, Zandra, had moved to St. Ignace 21 years ago, from Grayling.

He was born October 27, 1945, to Don and Thelma (nee Wisebarker) Sims in West Branch.

Mr. Sims was employed as a construction worker in the Grayling area for many years and worked for Gus Construction. He was an excellent mechanic, and he taught his son the trade. He also was employed as an oil field worker at one time.

He married Zandra Hopkins November 30, 1964, and she died April 16, 2016.

He is survived by a daughter, Robin Goudreau of St. Ignace; a son and his family, Bryan and Anita Sims of Pine River, and four grandchildren, Emily Goudreau, Kayla Sims, Liam Sims, and Kelsey Sims. He is also survived by two brothers and their families, Jim Sims of Roscommon and Clem and Ann Sims of Oklahoma, and two sisters and their families, Carolyn North of Indian River and Joyce Peterson of Grayling.

In addition to his parents and his wife, Zandra, Mr. Sims was preceded in death by three brothers, Gaylord, Michael, and Scott.

In accordance with his wishes, no services will be held.

Dodson Funeral Home of St. Ignace assisted the family with arrangements.
