“ Jack and I are so sorry for your loss! So many memories of fun times, when Jack would hunt with Mac McKiddie, and he would talk fishing with Gary McKiddie, and I would see Jack on his morning walks and stop to chat, when he was at the cabin...gosh, he will be missed, but those memories live on in our hearts. May God bless you.

“ Our sympathies and prayers are with you Carol and family at the loss of Jack. He will be fondly remembered as such a special man, warm, caring with a bright smile for all. He was a great friend to my dad, Al. They had many good times together, including being fishing buddies.

“ Carol, Mike & Todd - So very sad to hear of Jack's passing. We go back so many years and always enjoyed Jack's sense of humor and his many stories, especially about the Strongs area. There are so many good memories, often with McIvers, and he will not be forgotten. RIP Jack.

“ My heartfelt condolences to Carol, Todd and Mike. I was one of the neighborhood kids that had a lot of contact with the DeWeese family. Mike is one of my closest childhood friends. Mr. DeWeese was the neighborhood "cool" dad. I always liked going over to the house. RIP Mr. DeWeese
