When we were young boys John and I would hunt small game out at my father's cabin , and even though we rarely got anything, we always had a great time. Meanwhile his Dad Bob and my Dad Ralph would sit at the cabin table drink coffee and talk up a storm. They were all good days. I still own the cabin and when I'm out there I often think of all the good memories like John and I hunting. Good by my friend. Roger an Janet Hart
