

John Mustonen

December 9, 1939 - September 1, 2019

John Hjalmar Mustonen Jr., age 79, of Sugar Island, Michigan, succumbed to cancer in the comfort of his own home, surrounded by his family on September 1, 2019.

John is survived by his devoted and loving wife of 56 years, Sharon (nee Ruona), daughter Shari (Ronald) Johnson of Bartlett, IL, son John Jeffrey (Lisa) Mustonen of Bolingbrook, IL, grandsons Dustin (Angela) Howe of Tacoma, WA and Ian Mustonen of Bolingbrook, IL, great-grandchildren Trent and Leia Howe of Tacoma, WA. He was blessed with an extended family and close friends that surrounded him with affection until his last moments.

John was a Vietnam Era Navy Veteran that proudly served his country aboard the USS Intrepid (CVA 11) and then the USS Constellation (CVA 64).

John then worked for the Singer Sewing Machine Company in Illinois, where he became a Master Service Technician and developed a reputation as the man that could fix anything. After 30 years in the industry, upon retirement, he continued as an independent contractor until he and Sharon moved back to their hometown of Sault Ste Marie and Sugar Island in 2011.

John was a proud Republican and member of the NRA.

His passions were listening to and sharing his love of all types of music and watching sports on tv, especially football. We always believed he was a diehard Chicago Bears Fan, but upon his return to the UP it became apparent that he harbored a love for the Green Bay Packers. He just loved football, any team, all day. Later in life, he enjoyed baseball, and the Chicago Cubs, until the move and then the Detroit Tigers.

A special Thank You to the folks at EUP Home Health and Hospice for their loving care and support during his final days.

Burial will be private.

Memorial donations may be made to EUP Home Health and Hospice.
