entered into eternal life with his Lord and Savior on Sunday October 25th.

Joseph was born on January 18, 1959 in Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan to Gerald

W. Campbell and Grace M. (Schmidt) Campbell. Both parents predeceased him. Joe was always known for his characteristic sweet smile and funny little antics. Everyone who met Joe loved "Joe Joe". Joe spent most of his life as a resident of the Santiago Adult Foster care home in St. Ignace, Michigan with his fellow residents and care givers who were like family. Joe made his challenges look easy and lived with grace and a kind, caring spirit. The angels are singing as Joe has come home. Joseph is survived by his sister, Margaret (Campbell) Robert Tipsword of Traverse City and Gerald Scott Campbell of Sault Ste. Marie, Joe is also survived by two nieces, Christina Tipsword of Modesto, California and Ashlee Tipsword of St. Joseph, Michigan. He also leaves behind many aunts, uncles and cousins in lower Michigan and the Portland, Oregon area. His family would like to thank the many special caring individuals who entered into his life, advocated on his behalf and cared for him throughout his life, his illness and in his final days. A luncheon and celebration of Joseph's life will be held in the spring. The family invites all who knew "Joe Joe" to come and share memories of Joe. Contributions in memory of Joe can be kindly made to the Hospice of the EUP. Please share your memories of Joe online at clarkbaileynewhouse.com. Clark Bailey Newhouse Funeral Home is assisting the family with arrangements. Burial will be in Riverside Cemetery in the spring.
