“ Attn: Tim, I heard from my folks today, about the passing of your Father, Joe- I have nothing but fond memories of being a kid back then, running wild in the woods and areas surrounding Riverside drive, playing games, and seeing your Dad around your old Soo house and the little watch shop. Odd how life goes, one minute you are playing as kids, the next you're off in our own directions and living grown up lives. Just wanted to drop a note to say hello, and that I was reminded of those days and your Dad. I wish all the best to you and your family, take care old friend- Brian Wilson
