“ To anyone that is interested, there is a memorial site on youcaring.com for my mother. Just go to <http://www.youcaring.com/memorial-fundraiser/Margaret-Flemming-Memorial/41200> It was made for her family with the intentions of making her last wishes come true. BUT, it was also made for friends and family just to go on and share their memories of mom with eachother. Please visit it and share at least one memory for us kids, I know I love reading the stories people have. They are helping me through this hard time.

“ Margarite had a wonderful "soft" side that a lot of people didn't know. We had some good times together canning, going to coffee, and playing cards. Devin had a great time running to Margarites in his diaper just to hide on Grandma. I will think of you when I am canning tomatoes and wonder if you are winning at the casino in the sky. See you again some day.
