“ Sam and I knew Judy through her sister, Pat. There are many things I remember about Judy, but what I remember most about her is her generosity and her good nature. She used to work at one of the fudge shops down by the Locks, and I remember that she made the best salt water taffy. She was always bringing home some of it for Sam when he was a little kid. Also, she was always there for the people around her that needed her. That says volumes about her. I'm sure that she will be greatly missed by all who knew her. You have my thoughts and my prayers.
