

Judy Ann Taylor

March 31, 1940 - May 16, 2017

Judy Ann Taylor, age 77, of Brimley, Michigan passed away Tuesday morning, May 16, 2017 at War Memorial Hospital. Judy was born in Flint, Michigan to the late Harry and Mildred (Hayes) Ritchie. She graduated from Hoover High School, in Flint, Michigan with the Class of 1958. Judy then attended Cedarville College for two years. She worked for General Motors in their Flint V-8 Engine Plant for 35 years retiring in 1995. She was the benefits representative for the plant and was the "go to" person for their insurance programs. Judy enjoyed wildlife of all kinds. She kept a watch out for her humming birds, squirrels, chipmunks, and her special fox. She also enjoyed gardening and tending to her flowers. Judy was a great cook, who made wonderful fried chicken and milk gravy, as well as her world famous pancakes. She loved to bake and was always giving her bake goods to friends and family. She would give people anything they needed, sometimes to her own detriment. Judy loved playing Skipbo and others card games with John Burton, who called her "Blue Eyes". Judy is survived by her daughter: Sheryl (Ralph) Vettraino of Howell, MI; one grandchild: Nichole (Tony) Skaggs of San Diego, CA; and one great grandchild: Ryan. Judy is also survived by her sister: Carole Hibbard of Flushing, MI; her brother: Clark (Charlene) Ritchie of Santa Barbara, CA; and her significant other: John Burton of Brimley, MI. Judy was preceded in death by her parents and her husband: Robert Lee Taylor, whom she married on June 9, 1962 at Riverdale Baptist Church in Flint, Michigan. A celebration of Judy's life will be held from 2:00 until 6:00 PM on Saturday, May 20, 2017 at her home.
