On November 6, 2007 the tribe honored her for her foster home and runaway shelter she ran for three decades helping over 2,000 tribal and non-tribal youth. Many of the kids that went through the house still refer to her as mom and even after retirement the kids still come to visit, say hi, ask for her advice and reminisce. The tribe named November 6th as June Curran Porcaro Day. Many called her Mom or Grandma June. Moms doors, arms, and heart were always open. If you asked her what her name was she would tell you....June Teresa Mary LaJoice Gordon Curran Porcaro. Visitation will be Tuesday March 17 from 9:00am to 11:00am at Clark Bailey Newhouse Funeral Home. Funeral mass will be Tuesday March 17 11:00am at St. Mary's ProCathedral in Sault Ste. Marie with Father Sebastian Kavumkal officiating.
