

Junior Milo Gruno Jr.

June 7, 1956 - March 11, 2019

Junior Milo “Jay” Gruno Jr., age 62, of Raber Michigan, died on March 11, 2019 as the result of a house fire. He was born on June 7, 1956 in Flint, Michigan, to Junior Milo and Bonnie (Owens) Gruno Sr.

Jay grew up in the Flint area graduated from Gladwin High School in the class of 1974. He attended college before he started working in roofing and construction. He married in 1981 and they started their family, raising two boys. They all moved to the Eastern Upper Peninsula in 1992, where Jay worked at Detour Saw Mill doing logging. When the mill in Detour closed, Jay moved to Drummond Island, Michigan for several years to help with his grandchildren. In 2014, he moved to Raber and made is home.

Jay liked hunting, fishing, and spending time with his grandchildren. Though he never watched much TV in the past, the last little while he kept Direct TV in business: watching a lot of shows including several reruns.

Jay is survived by sons, Edward (Rachel Enloe) Gruno and Adam (Heather Miller) Gruno both of Raber; grandchildren, Jaden, Grace, and Mya; brother, Gregory Gruno of Meredith, Michigan.

Jay was preceded in death by his parents, Junior Sr. and Bonnie Gruno.

No services are planned at this time.

R. Galer Funeral Home in Pickford, Michigan is serving the family.
