“ What is there to say at a time like this, there are never any words that will ease the pain over someone as special as our Aunt Keinna, Awesome Lady, her heart was so BIG, she sure could cook, her love for family, grand kids and even animals. I know she may not have wanted to live any of us, but I know she was ready. In her heart she was ready, and this is something they tell us to do because we just never know when it is our time. I wish I could be there more then anything for u all, Mark, Scott and Dawnie. Your Mom , as a child for me was a BIG part of my life and I am happy I had someone like her in it. Thinking about all of u, and sometimes this summer Dinah and I will head your way to show off her beautiful surprise. She is due anytime now and that is why I can not come. Much Love to you all, Cathy and Darryl Waldroup

“ Meeting Keinna was a true gift. She opened her home freely and openly for meditations and naming ceremonies. Teachings were shared during times in the sweat lodge and afterwards in gatherings eating her wonderful stew and bannock. Sending thanks and blessings as you journey to the spirit world.

“ Blessings to the Masta Family in the loss of your Beloved Keinna: With a glad heart and openness to life, Keinna taught me so many valuable life lessons. She was so loving to everyone and often shared her life experiences that lead her on her path of spirituality. She was never at a loss for words and she often spoke up when she experienced or witnessed injustices. Her experiences helped others who heard them relate to their own stories and to find their own spiritual path. I shall never forget the spiritual gifts Keinna shared with me, although sadly some of the details I may forget. However, the trip to Keinna's place in 2006 was filled with so many spiritual treasures that it will always remain as a time the Creator smiled down on us all and showered us with the most beautiful offerings. The kinship I shared with Keinna was of great love and admiration for her beauty, tenderness and innocence inside and out. I shall cherish our late night and early morning talks at Shannon's, in addition to other times she shared her heart felt wisdom. My love for Keinna is and forever eternal. I know she joins the Grandmothers and she will continue her teachings for all who call upon her. Teena

“ Words cannot express the sadness I feel but also grateful in the other hand of what this beautiful woman Kienna & her family had done for me and my son. Kienna had the most beautiful heart and took our hands when we could not walk or talk for ourselves. She welcomed us in her home, cooked did ceremony, let us sleep made medicines, did hides, fasts, smudged...all the comforts of rejuvenating spirit. It was one of the most comfortable experiences in my whole life. She will never be forgotten...Prayers to her family all her girls xoxo Love Michelle & Family
