“ I only saw Larry once in the past year at Walmart, but he was the same Larry I knew and worked with at the Famous Tours, and wearing the same smile he wears in his military uniform. Always willing to talk and share his knowledge, especially about boats and marine engines. He could listen to the Le Voyageur or the Nokomis underway at a distance of a half mile away and tell you how it was running and what may be a problem. He knew MerCruisers too...What a Guy...What pleasant memories.
