Leota was born June 13, 1921 in Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan. Leota grew up on the family farm in Brimley and worked hard taking care of the animals having a special love for the Holstein cows. Milking chores greeted her every morning and evening after attending the Gladys one room school house located at the corner of 6 mile and Piche Side Road. Helping her parents feed the loggers that camped beside their property in an old bunk house in the 1930's taught her the skills of cooking and baking for a crowd at an early age. Staying on the farm to help take care of her parents found her busy gardening and canning jar after jar of her famous pickled beets which she graciously shared with family and friends. She also took great pride in her freshly baked cinnamon rolls, sending them home with all who came to visit. Leota spent many hours quilting and doing needlepoint, making gifts for Christmas, weddings and baby showers. She also enjoyed reading, crocheting, and crossword puzzles.
