“ It was back in the early 70s when I rode shotgun on the seasonal overload bread truck driven by my Uncle Pat Duflo that I got to meet Lloyd. Those early morning hours meeting the big rig from Marquette carrying our deliveries were a little rough on this young lad, but that's where I got to meet, and get to know Lloyd. He was a somewhat soft spoken gent and always such a super nice guy. Though I haven't seen him since that time, I'm quite sure he was an amazing person to all that had the pleasure to know him along the way.
