

Louise M. Waller

February 10, 1930 - October 25, 2013

Louise M. Waller, age 83, formerly of Port Angeles, WA passed away early Friday morning, October 25, 2013 in Sault Ste. Marie, Mich. Louise was born February 10, 1930 in Falmouth, Mass., to the late Joseph and Louise (Perry) Martin. She was a graduate of Falmouth High School class of 1947. On July 5, 1957, she married Henry James Waller in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., where he was on leave from serving his country as a Marine. Louise and Henry moved to Port Angeles in 1976 after Henry "Hank" retired from the Marine Corps. Louise lived on the Olympic Peninsula for over 40 years until moving to Michigan to live with her daughter. Louise enjoyed her family and loved to travel. She was a devoted New York Yankees fan. Louise loved music and dancing. Louise is survived by her children, Michael (Annie) Swisko, of Windham, Maine, Martha (Tom) Schmidt, of Phoenix, Ariz., Marianne (Kelly) Davis, of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., and Patsy LaChance of Sacramento, Calif.; 10 grandchildren, and 5 great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband and 5 siblings. No public services will be held. She will be buried at Oceanview Cemetery in Port Angeles, Wash., with her husband at a later date.
