Lucille Ann Kowalczak, age 104, died at MyMichigan Medical Center in Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan, on March 12, 2023. She was born in Sault Ste. Marie on July 29, 1918, to Eugene and Elva Castagne.

Lucille grew up in Barbeau, Michigan, and started working at the hospital. She met William "Bill" Benoit, when he was a patient, and they married on September 22, 1937, at Holy Name of Mary Catholic Church in Sault Ste. Marie. They started their family and she worked at the Hotel Ojibway for special events and waitressing for several years. She began catering for weddings with her cousin Eugenia Desormeau for several years. After Bill's tragic death, a few years later she married Arthur "Art" LaVigne. They began traveling to Arizona and other states before settling in Florida for the winters. After ten years of marriage, Art died. Lucille then reunited with a family friend, who worked at her family's farm, John Kowalczak, and they married in 1977 and were together for twenty-seven years before his death in 2001. After a few years, she moved back to Michigan in 2005 to be closer to her children.

Lucille was a member of the Big Boy Bowling League, and the Merry Mixers, where they met once a month to play cards. She was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church and St. Joseph Catholic Church. She along with three other ladies started the Thrift Shop at St. Joseph's, while also being a longtime member of the church guild. Later, she became a member of the Holy Family

Church in Barbeau, Michigan.

Lucille loved her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. She loved cooking, baking, sewing, crocheting slippers, knitting sweaters, oil painting, and have everyone over for dinner.
