Lynn Lee Dyal, age 51, of Drummond Island, Michigan, died March 4, 2015 at her home surrounded by her family. She was born February 4, 1964 in Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Lynn was a lifelong resident of Drummond Island and a graduate of DeTour High School. For many years she worked as a cook at restaurants on the island.

Lynn loved to fish all year round. She liked frogs and had an extensive collection of frogs in many different forms. Most of all, Lynn treasured every moment she spent with her grandchildren.

She is also survived by her father, Robert Lee Britton of Lake Geneva, Wisconsin; mother, Judith Ann (Immel) Melvin; twin sister, Laura Melvin; and brothers, Dean Melvin and Dale (Kelly) Melvin, all of Drummond Island.

Lynn was preceded in death by her step-father, John Kenneth Melvin; stepmother, Alice Britton; and brother, John Kenneth Melvin Jr.

A memorial service will be held Tuesday, March 10, at 11:00 A.M. at the Drummond Island Township Hall.

“ *The daughter of one of my dearest friends has gone home to be with the Lord and what I remember is that when her mother was expecting "a baby," there was a big Surprise! when two of them were born! As I recall, mom, was in awe, and anxious, at the same time to be blessed with these two precious babies! She couldn't (and can't) have loved them more!
My thoughts and prayers are with you always, my friend, especially at this difficult time!
Love you,

“ Lynn s smile and upbeat attitude will be remembered always. So very sad but we hope it helps to know she fought a good fight for a lot of years and is now pain free and in a much better place. Earth has no sorrow heaven can't heal Know you are all in our thoughts at this most difficult time and if we can do anything at all please don't hesitate to call. Mike & Diane 5393
