

Marcella Oda Ostrander

November 11, 1921 - September 2, 2012

Oda Ostrander, 90, died Sunday September 2, 2012 at the Anam Chara Home in Boulder, Colorado. She is survived by her three children; George and his wife Fran, Delores Cutrera and her husband Andy and Arnold and his wife Barbara and by her grandchildren Patrick (Julia) Ostrander, Dr. Robyn Ostrander (Jerry Doherty), Jessica Papadopoulos (George), Charles Cutrera (Melissa) and Calla and Ursula Ostrander. She also leaves behind great children Ian Ostrander, Carter Ostrander, Rilian and Hannah Cutrera. She is also survived by her nephew Richard Winkler (Betty) and her cousins Clinton (Beverly) Passino, Rick Socha, Janice Millhouse and Suzanne Noyle.

Marcella Oda Ostrander was born in Cheboygan November 14, 1922. She was one of six children born to Charles and Irene (Passino) LeDuc. She was preceded in death by brothers Charles and Williard and sister Monica Curtis, sister Charles Irene and Darcy Jacques. Oda spent her last few years in Colorado in assisted living homes. Previously she lived for many years in Paradise, Mich. Oda worked at the Whitefish Point Shipwreck Museum for many years and was an avid blueberry picker and collector of driftwood, from which she created many artistic pieces. In her younger years she assisted in the surveying of the lower Tahquamenon Falls. A memorial service will be held 11 a.m. Friday September 28 at Our Lady of Victory Catholic church in Paradise, Michigan. Lunch will be served after the service. Remembrances may be made to the Shipwreck Museum.