

Mark Earl Bartley

September 8, 1960 - March 16, 2026

Mark Earl Bartley, age 65, of Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan, died on March 16, 2026, at MyMichigan Medical Center - Sault. He was born on September 8, 1960, in Port Huron, Michigan, to Raymond and Marion (Murawski) Bartley. Mark's journey began on a horse farm in Port Huron, where he spent a decade doing work he genuinely loved. After that chapter, he transitioned into a more industrial role as a material manager at Inmont. Eventually, he made the move to Michigan's Upper Peninsula, taking on positions at Kewadin Casinos and Flotation Docking Systems. In time, he found his place at Precision Edge in Sault Ste. Marie. There Mark was known as "the Master Blaster," often remembered for carrying a small yet powerful whip. In his free time, Mark loved camping and had a passion for remodeling vintage campers. He also enjoyed woodworking, watching NASCAR, fishing, and relaxing with a good, stiff drink.

Mark is survived by his son, Daniel (Brittany) Bartley, grandchildren, Audrey and Carter; brothers, Joe (Suzie) Bartley of Jacksonville and Thomas (Cindy) Bartley of Cedarville, Michigan; sister Melanie (Emmanuel) Gonzales of Port Huron, Michigan, Linda Newland of Sault Ste. Marie, Ronda (Steve Frazier) Bartley of Croswell, Michigan, Nancy (Don) Jones of Sault Ste. Marie; many nieces and nephew; and buddies; JR Lacey, Al Langolf and Rudy McKinney.

Mark was preceded in death by his parents, Raymond and Marion; brothers, Bob Bartley and Scott Bartley; and buddies, Don "Bones" Hamlin and Mark

Ellis.

A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date.

“ Sending sincere condolences to all who knew this great guy! It has been many years since I've seen him, but the last time was like nothing changed. A smile and a quick hug (because I made him). We sat and chatted for a bit and left with some good memories. Rest in Peace my friend! Baamaapii Jamie (McCoy) Harvey
