

Mary Virginia Grayson

April 18, 1927 - February 23, 2024

Mary Virginia Grayson, formerly of Pickford, Michigan, passed away peacefully on February 23, 2024, in Louisville, Kentucky. Born on April 18, 1927, to the late Alex and Eva Pittsley, Mary's life was a testament to her unwavering dedication to helping others.

Mary's career as a registered nurse was marked by her profound commitment to her patients, which benefited greatly from her expertise and generous spirit. After retiring, she served as a hospice volunteer for several years. Her journey was not just a career, but a calling that she fulfilled with grace, devoted spirituality and professionalism.

Mary cherished all her family and friends in Michigan and Kentucky. She had been living at Shelby Farms Senior Living in Shelbyville, Kentucky.

Mary is survived by her loving son, John Grayson (Zita) of Waddy, Kentucky; brother, Larry Pittsley (Pauline) of Midland, Michigan; six grandchildren and sixteen great-grandchildren; daughter-in-law, Sandy Walton; son-in-law, Clyde Winberg; and several nieces and nephews, who take comfort in the legacy of love and service that Mary leaves behind. Her memory will forever be cherished by those who knew her. Mary Virginia Grayson's life was a true embodiment of kindness, and she will be deeply missed.

Mary was preceded in death by her husband, Ernest Grayson; sons, Timothy,

Steven, and David Grayson; and daughter, Anne Winberg.
