

Mary Lou Linderoth

December 28, 1939 - December 25, 2017

Mary Lou (Johnson) Linderoth passed away Christmas morning 2017. She was born in Luther, Michigan on December 28, 1939 to Willen and Renetta Johnson. She married Leon W. Linderoth on February 2, 1959.

She was predeceased by her parents, one daughter, Penny, and most recently by her husband (at the end of August this year). She is survived by her brother Dr. Bruce Johnson. She has three surviving children: Heidi Witucki, Carol (James) Geukes, and Karl (Mary) Linderoth. Also feeling this loss are her grandchildren: John Geukes, Monica (Jason) Fall, Mary Witucki, Seth Witucki, Kellie Linderoth and Erin Linderoth, as well as a great-grandson, Henry Fall.

Mary was a mother, homemaker and an avid local historian. She loved the outdoors and hiking. She regularly received calls from state and federal Forest Services staff who called with questions because she had hiked so much of their lands. She lived a happy and full life and her only regret might be that she won't get to see the final episode of The Curse of Oak Island. Those of us left behind know how very happy you are to be reunited with Dad and Penny, but we will miss you Mom. According to Mary's wishes, no public services will be held.

Tribute Wall

JO

“ 3-17-2018 Just found out Dear Cousin Mary - rest in peace. Condolences to all

---

John Oberg - March 17, 2018 at 12:00 AM

TW

“ My youth returns as the rains of Spring and my kin like the wild geese flying I listen to hear the black crow sing and I know where the deer are lying. I'm gone in search of Superiors rocks where the love of God will surround me I sleep in the earth like a tired fox and my whispering forests have found me. With sincere sympathy Ted, Nancy and family Please let us know if there is anything that we can do for you. Our love.

---

Ted and Nancy Walker - January 02, 2018 at 12:00 AM