

Mary Jane White

June 6, 1923 - February 27, 2010

Mary Jane White, age 86, of Sault Ste. Marie, passed away very quietly and peacefully in her sleep at home on Saturday morning. Her Friday evening dessert was vanilla ice cream. She was born Mary Jane Collyer in Cadillac, Michigan on June 6, 1923, grew up in Sault Ste. Marie and married Paul White in 1941. Mary Jane worked hard her entire life to help provide for four kids. Her family was blessed to have her as a wife and mom. Mary Jane is survived by her daughter Kathy (Jim) Martin of Santa Rosa, Calif., son John (Lise) White of Sault Ste. Marie, son Bill (Lesli) White of Grosse Pointe and son Tim (Ruthie) White of Kalamazoo. Also survived by grandchildren Serena White of Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario, Anthony Martin of Santa Rosa, Calif., Patrick White of Atlanta, Ga., Lauren White of Orlando, Fla., Jacqueline and Tyler Grimshaw of Sault Ste. Marie, Katie and Steve Alkema of Kalamazoo and David III of Eugene, Ore., as well as five great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents Owen and Pansy Collyer, sister Annette Mernaugh and husband Paul White. Please visit Mary Jane and family at Clark Bailey-Newhouse Funeral Home between 7 and 9 p.m., on Tuesday evening, March 2. Funeral services for Mary Jane will be at the First United Presbyterian Church on Bingham Avenue at 11 a.m., Wednesday, March 3. There will be visitation at the church beginning at 10:30 a.m. Mary Jane will be buried next to Paul at Riverside Cemetery.
