

Melba Jean Watson-Lofdahl

December 19, 1944 - August 15, 2019

Melba Jean Watson-Lofdahl, age 74, of Kincheloe, Michigan passed away Thursday morning, August 15, 2019, at War Memorial Hospital.

Jean was born on December 19, 1944, in Allenville, Michigan to the late Esther Wiggins. Jean graduated from Rudyard High School with the class of 1963. She worked for many years as an in home healthcare aid. Jean enjoyed sewing, crocheting, intricate adult coloring pages, cooking, and baking. She cooked at Amanda's Restaurant and Truck Stop Restaurant in St. Ignace for many years.

Jean left her mark on your life. She would involve herself in your life whether she knew you for one day or a lifetime. She would tell you the way it was and what she thought, whether you liked it or not. If a bad situation came along, she found ways to make the situation a little lighter. A relationship with Jean was often a love/dislike relationship. She was there for you day or night. She would try to keep you on the straight and narrow. No matter how hard it was, she stood her ground. She never gave up. She would do anything for anyone. It didn't matter if you were a stranger on the street, if you needed help, she would open her home to you. She will be missed by her family and friends.

Jean is survived by her son: Robert (Marie) Wiggins of Colorado; and several grandchildren. She is also survived by her sister: Patty King of Kincheloe, MI; niece and nephews: Al King, Jason (Jillian) King, and Becca King; and several great-nieces and great-nephews.

Jean was preceded in death by her parents and her husband: Robert Lofdahl (2013).

A memorial service will be held at 12:00 noon on Friday, August 23, 2019, at Fundamental Baptist Church with Pastor Tim Rader officiating.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be left to help with funeral expenses. Family was assisted by C.S. Mulder Funeral Home and Cremation Services.
