“ Mel my heart grieve for the loss of a very dear friend. You will remain in my heart I forever. I will miss our long talks on the phone and all the laughter you brought to me. There will never be a person as loving as you again, I will miss you forever. When you and I worked at Kmart together they were some of the happiest times spent at the store. Now you rest in the arms our Savior Jesus Christ, and he has wiped away your tears and made you whole again. Look for me when I arrive as we'll have so much to catch up on. Love you and miss you. You are also missed by your friends Darin and Nash Kanouse, we were planning a trip to see you the week of March 18th, but you went home too soon. K

“ I am heart broken to know that Mel has left us. Mel and I were friends all thru our years at Loretto. She was intelligent, funny and dedicated to her family. I learned how to do my hair from Mel. She always had the best 1960's hair. The years passed, I moved to Ann Arbor and sadly lost touch with my girl friends that I shared those wonderful, innocent high school days with. Often I would go to Mel's home and with her and "the sisters" we would go to the slip and hang out with the guys (her future husband included). Evenings we would cruise Ashmun with Trinda. I had called Mel just after Trinda's death and we talked on the phone for 4 hours! Laughing and reminiscing. We made promises to see each other soon. I did not come home soon enough..My love to Mel's family.
