

Monica Norton

June 8, 1933 - July 6, 2014

Monica "Monnie" A. Norton, died July 6, 2014 at Hospice House of the E.U.P. in Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan. She was born June 8, 1933 in Gaylord, Michigan. She was the daughter of the Frank and Gertrude (Swiecicki) Vinecki. She lived most of her adult life in Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan. Monica married Charles W. Norton on January 28, 1956 at St. Mary's Church in Gaylord, Michigan. They were married for 58 years. As a couple they enjoyed traveling the United States and also enjoyed spending winters together in Orange Beach, Alabama. She also enjoyed camping, cooking, crocheting, knitting, quilting, and spending time with her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. She spent a great deal of time fishing for salmon on the St. Mary's River with her husband in their boat named after her; the "Monnie". She was an Avon lady for many years and enjoyed the many friends she made while she was an Avon Lady. Monica is survived by her husband: Charles Norton; a son: Chuck (Kim) Norton of Sault Ste. Marie, MI; a daughter: Kathy (Steve) Waybrant of Wayland, MI; a daughter: Karen (Frank) Storey of Sault Ste. Marie, MI; and a son: Doug Norton of Hubbardston, MI. She is also survived by her grandchildren: Danielle Hendrick, Mike Waybrant, Tom Waybrant, Dan (Carley) Storey, Holly (Chris) Porcaro, Doug (Kayla) Norton, Christin (Mike) Hatch, and Kevin Norton Jr. Also surviving are great grandchildren: Maddison Hendrick, Memphis Meyer, Jaiden and Easton Porcaro, Olivia and Brayson Norton. Also surviving are her dear friends: Kathleen and Norris Poirier. She is predeceased by her son: Kevin Norton, Sr.

and her parents: Frank and Gertrude Vinecki. A visitation will be held from 10:00 AM until 12:00 noon on Thursday, July 10, 2014 at the St. Joseph Parish Hall. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held that same day at 12:00 noon at the St. Joseph Church with Father Jose as Celebrant. Interment will be at Riverside Cemetery at a later time. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be left to Hospice of the EUP.
