

Nellie Marjorie McCoy nee Wigwaus

December 10, 1927 - February 28, 2022

Nellie Marjorie McCoy, nee Wigwaus, 94, having been redeemed through the suffering of Jesus Christ, is now home with her Lord and Savior.

She was born on December 10, 1927, to John and Margaret (Wahbunosa) Wigwaus of Garden River, Ontario, Canada.

From across the river, Sugar Islander David Harold McCoy became her husband. They raised their children in Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan. Following the death of David, Nellie moved to Wetmore, Michigan to be close to family. Nellie passed away February 28, 2022, at her home in Wetmore under the loving care of her family with assistance from Northwoods Home Care and Hospice.

She is survived by a son Philip J. McCoy of Wetmore, Michigan; two daughters Nelda K. (William Smith) McCoy-Smith of Wetmore, Michigan; and Margret B. Spann of Rapid City, Michigan; six grandchildren Birch Smith, Michael, Jennifer, Christopher, Isaac, and Naomi Spann; as well as three great granddaughters Sonseray (12), Lanikai (10), and Rowan (8) Spann. Also survived by sister-in-law and brother-in-law Pearl (Alvin) Menard and many nieces and nephews.

Nellie was preceded in death by her parents John and Margaret Wigwaus, her husband David H. McCoy, son David K. McCoy (whose lifelong care had been entrusted to Nellie), son-in-law Lynn Spann, father-in-law and mother-in-law Fred and Bertha McCoy, and sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law: Lillian (Ed) Perrault, Lorraine (Phillip) Menard, Melvia (Glen) Menard, Cora (Billy Lee)

Smith, Isabel McCoy.

“ You are in our prayers during this time of loss of Nellie who was such a loving and precious mom, grandma, and friend. She had a beautiful smile, kind eyes, and soft laugh. It's a blessing to have known her. "Weeping may tarry for the night, but joy comes with the morning." (Psalm 30:5b) May all the good memories of Nellie bring you joy in God's time.
