

Norman Roy Nye

December 26, 1947 - October 15, 2024

Norman Roy Nye, age 76, died on Tuesday, October 15, 2024, in Troy, Michigan. He was born on December 26, 1947, in Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan, to Roy Nye and Jean (Chard) Carr.

Norman grew up in Hessel, Michigan, and graduated from Les Cheneaux High School with the Class of 1966. He met the love of his life, Dolores Easterbrook, and the two were married on July 12, 1968. The pair had two wonderful daughters that they adored. Following High School Norman enlisted and served in the United States Navy until April 30, 1989, when he retired after 20 years. After leaving the military, he went on to spend another 20 years working for the United States Postal Service before retiring from there also.

Norman enjoyed traveling to Key West, Florida, and spending time with his children and grandchildren. You could often find him spending time in nature, and always reporting the wildlife he encountered on his adventures. Walks were a part of his daily routine, whether it be in Key West, Stoney Creek Metropark in, Shelby Township, Michigan, or at the annual Mackinac Bridge walk. He was always walking somewhere!

Norman is survived by his daughters, Geana (Michael) Beattie and Nicole (Kerry) Sementkowski; grandchildren, Taylor Kish, Gregory Kish, Kyle Sementkowski, and Jenna Sementkowski; brother, James (Jim) Nye; sister

Amy Bills; and brother, Gary Nye.

Norman was preceded in death by his wife, Dolores "Dee" Nye; parents, Roy Nye and Jean Carr; sisters, Linda Storey and Cindy Nye; and brothers, Ronald (Dale) Carr and Roger Carr.

“ I was a 19 year old 3rd class petty officer assigned to the USS America in 1985. Small town boy I was from Nebraska that had never saw the big ships in my life. Chief Norm was my mentor and his values of life and family endeared me to his respect. I pray for you all at this time and my most sincere condolences. We kept in touch after I retired in 2003.
