

Orien A. Corbiere

September 20, 1958 - January 14, 2012

Orien A. Corbiere began his journey to the spirit world on January 14, 2012. He was well known and respected for sharing his passion of "Nishinaabemowin, especially its morphology. He taught "Nishinaabemowin in college and community classrooms, culture camps, and also on the world wide web. He was employed by Sault Tribe of Chippewa Indians; he helped Forest County Potawatomi of Wisconsin in their language preservation efforts as well as other organizations. Some of his many other interests included woodworking, music, barbecuing and making pickled eggs, travelling, and visiting his many friends and making new ones along the way and was very tech savvy. Orien was predeceased by parents Mabel M. (nee Pitawanakwat) and Paul G. Corbiere, and by sisters Rosalind Shigwadja and Ellen M. Migwans. He is survived by his beloved partner Dollie Keway whom he affectionately called "Loveliness." Also surviving are sisters Gertrude Shawanda of Birch Island, Veronica A. Corbiere, Caroline Corbiere, Nancy Corbiere (Ken Ireland), Shirley Kaiser (Klaus); brothers Archie Corbiere (Hilda), Alvin (Ted) Corbiere (predeceased Angeline), and George L. Corbiere, followed by his godchildren Kirby Corbiere and Joanne Corbiere, all of M"Chigeeng First Nation, Ontario, Canada. He will be sadly missed by all of his siblings, many nieces and nephews as well as extended family, students and friends. Everyone who had the chance to know this wonderful man will know that there was never a dull moment with Orien. Visitation will be from 1-9 p.m. on Tuesday, January 17, at Niigaanigiizhik Ceremonial Building near the Soo powwow grounds. Then he will be on his way to M"Chigeeng for services and burial. Clark Bailey Newhouse Funeral Home is assisting the family with arrangements.
