

Otto Lyle Hyslop Sr.

July 29, 1941 - September 21, 2023

Otto Lyle Hyslop Sr., age 82, of St. Ignace, Michigan, died on September 21, 2023. He was born in Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan, on July 29, 1941, to parents Calvin Gilbert and Olive (Payment) Hyslop.

Otto grew up and attended school in Sault Ste. Marie. A hard worker since birth, he entered the workforce young. During employment at the Kinross Airforce Base, he fell in love with Helen Cottle. They married on November 9, 1960, and started a family. They raised the children in St. Ignace where Otto did construction for LW Brum putting in waterlines for Evergreen Shores. He later did some heavy equipment work for Jim Lipsitz and also worked at the Airport in Kinross, as well as the Marathon gas station for a time. He found a lifetime career with the Sault Tribe in housing maintenance and retired after twenty years. Always a hard worker, he didn't stay in retirement long and went back to work for the Sault Tribe as a shuttle driver. He loved the job and getting to chat with people every day.

Otto was a member of the Sault Tribe of Chippewa Indians.

Otto loved going outdoors to hunt and fish in his free time, as well as watching NASCAR. He was very talented musically and played the guitar. He had a country band, Country Cut-Ups, and played across the Upper Peninsula with his bandmates, Floyd Paquin and Raymond Sayles Sr. When he was home, his grandchildren loved to hear him play his music. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

Otto is survived by his wife of sixty-two years, Helen; children, Connie (Howard) Cadotte, (Cheryl) Otto Jr. Hyslop, and Dean (Lyn) Hyslop; grandchildren, Dawn Marie, Krystal, Kayla, Danielle (Carrie), DJ, Jessica, MaryJane, April, Bobbi Joe, and Chloe; great-grandchildren, Vanessa, Morgan, Riley, Alexia, Eliam, Paige, Cheryl, Kira, Hailee, Olivia, Little Joe, Jacob and Ella; great-great-grandchildren, Harper and Skyler; siblings, Arlene Egert, Carol Hyslop, and Ruth Hyslop, as well as many beloved nieces and nephews.

Otto was preceded in death by his parents, Calvin and Olive; siblings, Cal, Donnie, Gary, Wayne Hyslop and Lona Jackson.

“ Family I pray we are all strong enough in our own ways to process this. Helen my grandmother I can't find words to say, I can't even imagine the pain an heart ache you are going through. I pray extra hard for you, to his children my father my aunt an my uncle, hold on to the memories you have remember the good times you all had. Remember him being our family's HERO our family's legend our families G.O.A.T. and to all his grandchildren just know I pray for all of us. My papa I love you, I will miss you, no words, no magic can bring you back, I have a hard time accepting that. So I'll lite this candle and saw I will always remember you my hero my second love my papa may you rest in peace and become our angel up above. Shine the way with your grace an mercy ☐ until we see you again. I will forever love you
