

Patricia Ann Haskell

December 23, 1924 - July 29, 2008

Patricia Ann Haskell, age 83, of Kincheloe, Michigan died Tuesday, July 29, 2008 at Northern Michigan Regional Hospital in Petoskey, Michigan. She was born December 23, 1924 in Ann Arbor, Michigan to Adolph Ellory and Ruth (Allmendinger) Schmidt. Patricia grew up in Ann Arbor, raised her children there and worked for 21 years as an editor for University Microfilm International. She married David Daniel Haskell on December 7, 1971 at the United Church of Christ in Ann Arbor. In 1988, she and David moved to Kincheloe with his job. Since her move, she has been an active volunteer with the township and for the Red Cross blood drives. She also was a contributor to the Community Voice community newspaper. Patricia enjoyed stained glass art, photography, writing, golfing, and gardening. She also enjoyed traveling which she and David did extensively early in their marriage. Patricia was an avid University of Michigan Wolverine fan – of both sports and music. She was an adventurous soul who would try anything and who was thrilled to go to the top of one of the towers on the Mackinac Bridge when she was in her 70's. Patricia is survived by her husband, David; three daughters, Maxine Louise Gardner Wiggins of Chelsea, Michigan, Rosalyn E. Teachworth of Old Lyme, Connecticut, and Stephanie Murray of Arden, North Carolina; one son, Gregory Scott (Susan) Gardner of Pinckney, Michigan; seven grandchildren; and five great grandchildren. Patricia was preceded in death by five sisters, Eleanor Dorstewitz, Margaret Carnegie, Alice Copley, Leta Ristine, and her twin, Mary Isaacson. Services will be held Friday, August 1 at Reamer Galer

Funeral Home, 24549 S. M-129 in Pickford, Michigan. Visitation will be from 11:00 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. with the funeral service to be held at 1:00 p.m. Those who wish may make contributions in Patricia's memory to the American Heart Association, 3816 Paysphere Circle, Chicago, IL 60674.
