“ Diane,

What can I say, other than I am so sorry for the loss of such a spectacular man. There isn't a time from Childhood to early married years, that I don't have fond memories of you two, and I am sorry that the busyness of normal lives, and the distance of where we lived, have kept us from seeing each other as much as I would have liked. He was the most thoughtful, kooky, fun, kind hearted man I think I have ever known. Much love to you and the family, and we will see you on Saturday to pay tribute to such a great man! I know my Dad will surely miss his 10:00 Sunday morning calls from Al. (aka: Roscoe) Prayers of peace and healing for all.
