

Paula Sue Noble

June 25, 1955 - September 9, 2015

Paula Sue Noble, age 60, of Kinross, Michigan passed away Wednesday morning, September 9, 2015 at War Memorial Hospital. Paula was born in Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan on June 25, 1955 to the late Arvitt and Alberta Faye (Mawhinney) Hancock. On December 22, 1977, she married Clark Noble. Paula worked for many years with Kinross EMS and Sugar Island EMS. She loved camping and bowling, but most of all, she loved spending time with family - kids and grandkids. She was a huge supporter of Relay for Life and other cancer societies. Paula was a survivor of breast cancer since 2006. Paula is survived by her husband: Clark Noble; three sons: Chris (Dana) Reed of Kincheloe, MI, Kenneth (Nikole) Noble of Carpinteria, CA, and Andrew (Bambi) Noble of Marquette, MI; and eleven grandchildren: Eryn, Taylor, Nathan and Audrie. Kristina and Clayton. Blaine, Alyssa, Brett, Noah, and Kevin. She is also survived by two sisters: Jan (Lewis) Chambers of Kincheloe, MI and Meri (Brian) Hancock of Rudyard, MI; a brother: Danny Hancock of Kincheloe, MI; and many nieces and nephews. According to Paula's wishes, no public services will be held. Cremation has taken place. Memorials may be left to the American Cancer Society.

“ Clark, our friend, and all of Paula's Family and Friends; we were so deeply pained to hear of her passing. We wish there were words that could take away the ache in your heart. Please find some comfort in knowing how very much we care. You will miss Paula, but every day that goes by now will put us one day closer to seeing you again in heaven. Please know we are here for you & your family no matter how big or small your need. With Love, Hugs, Prayers & Condolences ~ Jim & Jamie Harvey & Family
