“ As a child Penny was the one cousin that made me smile most. Her outlook on life was always positive and her laugh was full of joy. She will always be smiling upon us all.

“ My condolences to the Linderoth family. I didn't know Penny myself, but I was taught by her father at LSSU and worked with her sister Heidi at Upward Bound. I was just browsing the Soo Evening News website when I happened upon her obituary. My deepest sympathies to the Linderoth family during this time.

“ Dear Linderoth Family, I was totally shocked and saddened to hear of the death of my dear sister Penny. It was so kind of Karl to e-mail with the news. I remember the first time we met in a small town in Colorado, it was as if we had known each other forever. We hiked the hills with our dogs, Percy & Frank, shared many sunsets, cooked many great foods in my kitchen and I will never forget our long talks about families. I now have lost two great people in my life, my daddy and my good friend. Heaven is now richer than ever before with her presence. I will never forget you. Love you always, Connie or as you called me Birdwoman. Love You.....

“ I am so sorry to hear about Penny. I went to school with the girls at Dafter, and have lots of fun memories of them. Also remember coming to your house when the colt Lancer was born, what a great thing to witness when your a child.
Please accept my Sympathy and my Prayers are with you at this time.

“ I was extremely shocked and surprised to hear of Penny's passing and my thoughts are with the family at this time. I had just seen her at Joanns Fabrics on the Sunday before and I was thinking that she looked just the same as when we were in High School.

Penny always stood on her own and was her own independant thinker. She lived her life on her terms not on others. I think that is a great testament to any individual. She will be sadly missed by many.

“ Dear Leon, Mary, Hiedi, Carol and Karl,

I fondly remember Penny as one of Karl's smart and funny sisters, whom he admired very much. I am shocked and saddened to hear of her death.

Please accept my heartfelt condolences.

“ Hi, Sis!

Though you left us far too early, I feel the need to say a few things. While on earth, you were like a star burning bright in the sky. "Veni, Vidi, Vici" was your motto. You spoke many languages, you talked to strangers as if they were long lost friends, and you sparked the fire of learning in everyone you ever met. The places you traveled and the people you met caused me endless envy.

I still remember the many days we spent "in the stacks" of the LSSU library, tracking down from the smallest of footnotes some of the greatest of historical memories; the afternoons we skipped European History and read Tolkien or C.S. Lewis; the discussions you lead me into with Prof. Money where I knew I was over my head, but you always came to my rescue!

Be it known, that you will not be forgotten. My girls will say your name every day that I am alive. You are to me like the wind is to earth; that carries the warm air, that carries a breath of freshness, and carries the seeds of learning from land to land. I will dedicate my own instruction to helping my students learn what you taught me so long ago...live boldly, love learning, and share the knowledge until it hurts! Let your burdens be lifted, may your cares be dashed, and may you go to your maker and live, love and laugh!

Your loving little brother,

Karl

“ Dear Mary, Leon and family:

My father, sister and I are thinking of you in this difficult time. Dad in particular remembers how Penny used to share information about books she was reading with him. I did not know her very well myself, but I remember how we all played together at your house when we were very young.

Our support and thoughts are with you.

Sincerely,

Dee Stevens

“ I want to express my condolences, and shock over the death of Penny. While I was employed at Wal-Mart, she and her mother were particular favorites of mine. She always had a big smile for me and loved to discuss books with me. I always looked forward to seeing her, and just talking about everyday things. I know she loved her family and friends very much.

I just want the family to know that she had an impact on me and that I will miss her very much.
