

Genevieve R. Franek

August 19, 1915 - August 23, 2013

Genevieve Rose (Laux) Franek , formerly of Saginaw, Michigan passed away peacefully Friday, August 23rd, 2013, in her ninety ninth year (born August 19, 1915, in Wardsville, Missouri). She spent her early years in Jefferson City, Missouri, where she met during WWII, her future husband Edward Franek (pre-deceased 1986). They were married in Jefferson City MO., January 16, 1947 and later made their home in Saginaw, Michigan, where they raised their three children. Loving mother of Susan (Tom) Eansor, Oakville Ontario, Edward William (Pauletta) Franek, Freeland, Michigan, Linda McMillan and Dave McMillan, Dafter, Michigan. Dear Grandmother of Rebecca, Kevin, Laura, Elizabeth, Julie, Andy and Madison. Pre-deceased by her sisters Loretta Laux (Jefferson City, Missouri) Marie Tunnell (Sugar Island, Michigan) and her brothers, Harry, William, and Chester Laux (All of Jefferson City, Missouri), Alfred Laux (St. Louis, Missouri), David Laux (New Orleans, Louisiana). Jenny will be remembered as a wonderful cook, baker, and excellent seamstress. After her child rearing years, she worked for J.C Penny and when retired participated in fund raising activities for church bazaars in Rudyard, Michigan. She had a great sense of family and her humor will be missed by all. A private family celebration will be held at St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church; at 11:00 am Tuesday, August 27th, 2013, Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan with Father Augustine Jacob as Celebrant. Final resting place will be in Saginaw, Michigan next to her husband Edward.
