“ It's been 33 years that we have known each other, since opening Hiawatha in 1988. Over these years, I have come to know you as one of the finest people I have ever known. You were a great leader but an even better friend and you have gone way too soon. I wish you could have come to visit us in the islands, it would have been a wonderful time. I always looked forward to spending time with you when we came back to Michigan every year. Coming back next month will be difficult, but I will stop by and say Hi anyway and I'll bring something to leave with you. You will be missed but as we say here in the islands, "A Hui Hou" which says "Until we meet again". Aloha, Bobby

“GDammit Robert. You were my favorite cousin. Always looked up to you. So many really good memories. Like that gravel pit behind Hanks in Lewsiton where we would light torches at night throw them into the pit and then jump in after them. You always amazed me, like when Bryce told Scott and me to tip over that cast iron tub of water for the cows and together we could not budge it and you tipped it over on end like it was nothing. I knew then you were not a normal human. I remember restocking the Buckhorn every night, emptying the kegs that were not quite empty enough. Drinking boiler makers and playing cribbage until dawn when we would have to go out and cut firewood. Most times hung over and throwing up with each axe swing. Most of all i remember that crazy trip to Grand Rapids to pick up that pos buick and breaking down 6 times on the way back to Trout Lake. Dale always let me know about you over the years, sorry i was not the type to keep in touch but sure i will see you soon.

The last time I talked to Robert was when Robert posted a picture of him on the Mackinaw Bridge. Over the years I went to fish fry. Partying above the Buckhorn.
Listening to him talk about sleeping outside in a sleeping is sub zero weather.
My Daughters Remember someone calling calling him Robert bad ass. So when I talked about people Trout Lake they would say is that Robert Bad ass.
I remember baby sitting you at Nancy Fishers across from Grama Fishers Trailer.
God Bless you both.
Be Strong.
